

APPENDIX A
PARTICIPANTS

During the course of the preparation of this document, many elected officials, residents appointed to serve on the Milo Comprehensive Plan Committee, and members of the community volunteered their time to make this document a reality. In addition, several business owners spent a considerable amount of time with the Town's planning consultants giving individual interviews to assist in the economic development section of this plan.. The Town of Milo will be a better place in the future due to their efforts.
